Chapter 16. Failure to Disclose Earnings

IC 22-4-16-1

Falsification or failure to disclose; cancellation of wage credits; forfeiture of benefits

Sec. 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, if an individual knowingly fails to disclose amounts earned during any week in his waiting period, benefit period, or extended benefit period with respect to which benefit rights or extended benefit rights are claimed, or knowingly fails to disclose or has falsified as to any fact which would have disqualified him or rendered him ineligible for benefits or extended benefits or would have reduced his benefit rights or extended benefit rights during such a week, all of his wage credits established prior to the week of the falsification or failure to disclose shall be cancelled, and any benefits or extended benefits which might otherwise have become payable to him and any benefit rights or extended benefit rights based upon those wage credits shall be forfeited.
